

NATO vs EASTERN BLOC

ICONS OF THE COLD WAR

A complete show redesign, to better celebrate and showcase the models and those who build them! All of your entries will be displayed together with your name visible. Find those you want to discuss your favorite builds with and learn their techniques. Additional awards added!

This year, you may enter a maximum of 24 models. Up to 4 entries are eligible for GSB judging and to qualify for the 10 Master awards. All entries are eligible for another 11 Outstanding awards, and a variety of new Club Member awards from members of the TMF club. See the registration packet on the website for list of classes, awards, and show details.

Also new this year: online registration. Simple, fast, and moves you directly from the cashier to the display tables! Registration will open first of March - link and details will be on the contest page of the website.

Visit the contest page (link or QR code) to see the 2025 classes and awards.
